

On February 20, 2023 new edition of the following NCC's documents has come into force:

In terms of Forms and formats of the documents and reports:

Forms and formats of the documents and reports on the Standardised Derivatives Market. Part VI.

Within the implementation of the mechanism for the transition (conversion) from Mosprime to RUONIA in existing trades, the following changes to the form of the Application for changing the terms of the Standardised Derivative Contract (clause 2.5) are made:

1. The ability to reflect simultaneously changes of the several terms of the Standardised Derivative Contract is added.
2. The ability to indicate the calculating procedure for the payment amount when changing the terms of the Standardised Derivative Contract is added.
