- 18.13.1. the Clearing House checks that the Offer is submitted in respect of the security, which meets the requirements, defined in the decision, made in accordance with the paragraphs 17.3 and 18.4 of the Clearing Rules on the Securities Market, Deposit Market and Credit Market;
- 18.13.2. the Clearing House checks that the price, defined in the Offer, is more than or equal to the Lower Bound of the price range and less than or equal to the Upper Bound of the price range, set out by the Clearing House in accordance with the paragraph 17.6 of the Clearing Rules on the Securities Market, Deposit Market and Credit Market, of the security, in respect of which the Offer is submitted (in case if such bounds of the price range are set out by the Clearing House).
- 18.13.3. the Clearing House checks that the Offer passed the Procedure for collateral management in the order, which is similar to the order, defined in the Article 20 of the Clearing Rules on the Securities Market, Deposit Market and Credit Market, for orders to execute trades with the relevant settlement code.

The Clearing House makes check in accordance with the sub-paragraph 18.13.1 of the Clearing Rules on the Securities Market, Deposit Market and Credit Market in respect of the Intensions, information on which has become available to the Clearing House via the Clearing System.

- 18.13.4. The decision on securities in the Placement mode/Decision on securities in the Buying Back mode may establish the obligation of Clearing Members who submitted Offers to conclude OTC Trade in Securities in the “Placement: Addressed trades”/“ Buying Back: Addressed trades” modes, for the execution of which at the time of submission there is insufficient Collateral, and that did not ensure the availability of the Trade Account at the time of execution of the Offers, Collateral in an amount sufficient to undergo the Collateral control procedure in accordance with Article 20 of the Clearing Rules on the Securities Market, Deposit Market and Credit Market, make payment to the Issuer Clearing Member or the Clearing Member acting in the interests of the issuer, compensation calculated in the manner established by the Decision on securities in the Placement mode/Decision on securities in the Buying Back mode. The procedure for fulfilling obligations to transfer compensation specified in this paragraph of the Clearing Rules on the Securities Market, Deposit Market and Credit Market is similar to the procedure set out in paragraph 27.17 of the Clearing Rules on the Securities Market, Deposit Market and Credit Market.
- 18.14. In case of positive result of all checks, defined in the paragraph 18.13 of the Clearing Rules on the Securities Market, Deposit Market and Credit Market (in respect of the Intension – check, defined in the sub-paragraph 18.13.1 of the Clearing Rules on the Securities Market, Deposit Market and Credit Market), the Clearing House registers in the Clearing System received Offer / Intension. In case of negative result of at least one of the defined checks, the Clearing House forwards to the Clearing Member refusal of the Offer / Intension registration.

- 18.14.1. Clearing House may forward to the Clearing Member the refusal in registration of the Offer in other cases, stipulated by the Clearing Rules.
- 18.14.2. When registering in the Clearing System the received Offer, the Clearing House starts recording values of the Settlement Account Single Limit, of the Single Limit of the Settlement Account of the 2nd level and/or of the Single Limit of the Settlement Account of the 3rd level, calculated when checking the possibility to register the Offer, as the new values of the Single Limit of such Settlement Accounts of the relevant level.
- 18.15. The Clearing Member is entitled to withdraw an Offer, submitted to the Clearing System, till the moment of execution of an OTC Trade in securities on the basis of such Offer. In case of execution on the basis of the Offer of the OTC Trade in securities with the number of securities, less than indicated in the Offer, Clearing Member is entitled to withdraw the Offer in non-fulfilled part.
- 18.15.1. When the Clearing Member withdraws an Offer, the Clearing House calculates the Settlement Account Single Limit, Single Limit of the Settlement Account of the 2nd level and/or the Single Limit of the Settlement Account of the 3rd level, which is included into the structure of the Trade Account of the 1st, 2nd or 3rd level, defined in the Offer, and/or corresponding to the Trade Account of the 2nd or 3rd level, defined in the Offer, not taking into account such Offer.
- 18.16. In cases, defined in the Clearing Rules, the Clearing House is entitled to delete from the Clearing System Offers, submitted by the Clearing Member.
- 18.17. Immediately after the registration of the Offer in the Clearing System submitted by the Clearing Member, the Clearing House checks availability of Offers of Clearing Members, which have coinciding terms.
- 18.18. Offers, which have coinciding terms, are counter Offers with the following similar terms:
- security name (code);
 - number of securities (, indicated in lots for “Continuous auction with CCP”, “Addressed trades with CCP” modes);
 - price for one security (only for, “Bilateral trades with CCP” and “Addressed trades with CCP” modes);
 - Price for sell is not more than Price for buy (Price for buy is not less than Price for sell) (only for the “Continuous auction with CCP” and “Opposite auction with CCP” modes);
 - settlement code;
 - Offer is submitted by the Clearing Member, which is indicated as the Clearing Member, Offer of which may be recognized as the Offer with the coinciding terms (if indicated);
 - PIN code (only for the “Addressed trades with CCP” and “Bilateral trades with CCP” modes).

18.19. Execution of Cross Trades is prohibited except for the case, defined in the paragraph 18.25 of the Clearing Rules on the Securities Market, Deposit Market and Credit Market 18.20. If there are Offers, which are submitted by Clearing Members for concluding OTC Trades with the participation of a central counterparty and have coinciding terms, the Clearing House accepts Offers (formal offers). The Clearing House accepts Offers through putting into the list (register) of OTC Trades two OTC Trades in securities with such Clearing Members. The moment of time, when the information from the list (register) of OTC Trades on two OTC Trades in securities with such Clearing Members, is reflected in the Clearing System is recognized as the moment of time, when such Clearing Members – offerors have received the acceptance of the Clearing House to execute OTC Trade in securities under conditions, which correspond to the terms of Offers, which have coinciding conditions, is the moment, when the agreement on essential terms of a trade has been reached between the Clearing Member and the Clearing House, and the moment, when an OTC Trade in securities is executed between Clearing Members and the Clearing House.

An Offer submitted by a Clearing Member in the “Placement: Addressed trades” and “Buying Back: Addressed trades” modes and having coinciding conditions with another Offer is an acceptance by the Clearing Member to conclude a Trade with another Clearing Member who submitted the Offer earlier. The Clearing House enters into the list (register) of OTC Trades information on an OTC Trade in Securities concluded between Clearing Members. The moment of displaying in the Clearing System information from the list (register) of OTC Trades about an OTC Trade in Securities, the parties to which are these Clearing Members, is considered the moment such Clearing Members receive acceptance of the formal offers sent by them to concluding an OTC Trade in Securities on terms and conditions corresponding to the terms of the Offers that have coinciding conditions and, accordingly, is the moment of reaching an agreement between the Clearing Member on the essential terms of the Trade, as well as the moment of concluding an OTC Trade in Securities between Clearing Members in the “Placement: Addressed trades” and “Buying Back: Addressed trades” modes.

Moscow city, located in the Russian Federation, is the place of such trades execution.

18.21. In case if prices, defined in Offers, which have coinciding terms, are not equal (only for the “Continuous auction with CCP” and “Opposite auction with CCP” modes), price of the OTC Trade in securities is equal to the price, defined in the Offer, submitted earlier.

In case if number of securities in Offers, which have coinciding terms is not equal (only for the “Continuous auction with CCP” and “Opposite auction with CCP” mode), OTC Trade in securities is executed with the minimum number of securities from the ones defined in such Offers. While in the Offer with the bigger number of securities, number of securities is lessened for the amount equal to the number of securities in the executed OTC Trade in securities, and such Offer continues to be submitted to the Clearing System.

18.22. When executing OTC Trade in securities with Clearing Members, the Clearing House:

- assigns number to the executed OTC Trade in securities;

- calculates the Settlement Account Single Limit, Single Limit of the Settlement Account of the 2nd level and/or the Single Limit of the Settlement Account of the 3rd level, which is included into the structure of the Trade Account of the 1st, 2nd or 3rd level, indicated in the Offer, and/or corresponding to the Trade Account of the 2nd or 3rd level, indicated in the Offer, on the basis of which OTC Trade in securities is executed, without taking into account such Offer and taking into account executed OTC Trade in securities;
- accepts obligations, arising from the executed OTC Trade in securities, for clearing;
- under an OTC Trade in securities, executed with the indication of the Trade Account of the Clearing Member, changes, taking into account the executed OTC Trade in securities, the Net Obligation and/or Net Claim of the Clearing Member in securities / cash funds, recorded under the Trade Account, indicated in the Offer / under Settlement Account, which is included into the structure of the Trade Account of the Clearing Member, indicated in the Offer, on the basis of which an OTC Trade in securities is executed, with the Settlement Dates, corresponding to the Date(s) for the fulfillment of obligations under an OTC Trade in securities;
- under an OTC Trade in securities, executed with the indication of the Trade Account of the 2nd level, changes, taking into account executed OTC Trade in securities, the Net Obligation and/or Net Claim in securities / cash funds, recorded under the Trade Account of the 2nd level, indicated in the Offer / under the Settlement Account of the 2nd level, which is included into the structure of the Trade Account of the 2nd level, indicated in the Offer, and the Net Obligation and/or Net Claim in securities / cash funds, recorded under the Trade Account of the Clearing Member, corresponding to the Trade Account of the 2nd level, indicated in the Offer / under the Settlement Account, corresponding to the Trade Account of the 2nd level, indicated in the Offer, on the basis of which an OTC Trade in securities is executed, with the Settlement Dates, corresponding to the Date(s) for the fulfillment of obligations under executed OTC Trade in securities;
- under an OTC Trade in securities, executed with the indication of the Trade Account of the 3rd level, changes, taking into account executed OTC Trade in securities, the Net Obligation and/or Net Claim in securities / cash funds, recorded under the Trade Account of the 3rd level, indicated in the Offer / under the Settlement Account of the 3rd level, which is included into the structure of the Trade Account of the 3rd level, indicated in the Offer, and the Net Obligation and/or the Net Claim in securities / cash funds, recorded under the Trade Account of the Clearing Member / under the Trade Account of the 2nd level, corresponding to the Trade Account of the 3rd level, indicated in the Offer, on the basis of which an OTC Trade in securities is executed, with the Settlement Dates, corresponding to the Date(s) for the fulfillment of obligations under executed OTC Trades in securities.

18.23. When concluding an OTC Trade without the participation of a central counterparty, the Clearing House:

- assigns a number to the concluded OTC Trade in Securities;
- carries out the actions provided for in paragraph 19.15 or 19.16 of the Clearing Rules on the Securities Market, Deposit Market and Credit Market, for Trades concluded with settlement codes corresponding to the settlement codes with which OTC Trades were concluded.

- 18.24. The Clearing House keeps the list of Offers, submitted by Clearing Members and the Clearing House, and the list of OTC Trades in securities, executed with the Clearing Members.
- 18.25. Clearing Member is entitled to execute Cross Trades in case if the Clearing House has the information from the Exchange that there is permission for execution by the Clearing Member, which is a Trading Member, of Cross Trades on the Securities Market of the Exchange, on the basis of orders in “Addressed trades with CCP” and “Bilateral trades with CCP” modes, submitted by such Clearing Member as a Trading Member at the expense of the person, registered as a client of such Trading Member.
- 18.26. The fact that Clearing Members, which are Trading Members, submit Offers at the expense of the same person, registered as the client of such Trading Members, is established by the Clearing House on the basis of Identification data of the client received from the Exchange, which correspond to the short code of the client, indicated in each Offer.
- 18.27. If the concluded an OTC Trade in security, corresponds to the requirements of legal acts regarding provision of information to the stock exchange on buy-sell trades, executed via non-organized trading, Clearing Member hereby empowers the Clearing House to provide reports on such OTC Trades in cases and order, stipulated by the Rules of the provision of the information on OTC trades by brokers, dealers, managers, joint stock investment funds and asset management companies and keeping list of OTC trades of the Public Joint-Stock Company "Moscow Exchange MICEX-RTS". SUB-SECTION IV-III. SPECIFICS OF THE CALCULATION OF OBLIGATIONS UNDER TRADES

Article 21. Specifics of the calculation of obligations under REPO Trades and credit agreements and the order for the calculation of the obligation to pay the compensation payment

- 21.1. Unless otherwise, including the other order and the period for the REPO sum change is determined by the decision of the Clearing House or by the Clearing Rules on the Securities Market, Deposit Market and Credit Market, when the coupon (interest) income is accrued and/or part of the principal debt under bonds is paid out (amortization payment is made) then when paying during the duration period of the REPO trade, executed without the participation of the central counterparty (except for the REPO trade, executed in the Trading Modes “REPO with the Bank of Russia: REPO Auction”, “REPO with the Bank of Russia: fixed rate”, “REPO with the Bank of Russia: floating rate (additional mechanism”, and “REPO Auction with the Bank of Russia: floating rate”) coupon (interest) income under bonds and/or repayment of the principal debt (amortization payment) under bonds, the REPO sum is lessened for the value of paid coupon (interest) income and/or for the value of repayment of the principal debt (amortization payment) under bonds from the date of receipt by the Clearing House from the Payment agent for bonds, within the time frames and in the order defined in the agreement with the Payment agent for bonds, information on execution of accrued coupon (interest) income payment and/or on the repayment of the principal debt (amortization payment).
- 21.1.1. If the Clearing House does not have an agreement with the Payment agent for bonds, which stipulates the transfer of information on bonds income payments, then the lessening of the REPO sum is executed on the target date of payment.
- If the target date of coupon (interest) income payment under bonds and/or repayment of the principal debt (amortization payment) under bonds, payments under which are recorded according to the target dates, arrives on the day, which is not Settlement Day, REPO sum is lessened on the first Settlement Date following the target date of payment (unless otherwise stated in the decision of the Clearing House).
- 21.1.2. The REPO sum remains unchanged (except for cases of posting compensation payments in cash funds) if during the REPO duration period there is no coupon (interest) income payments and no repayments of the principal debt (amortization payment).
- 21.1.3. If the Clearing House receives information on execution of coupon (interest) income payment under bonds and/or repayment of the principal debt (amortization payment) on the date different from actual date of execution of coupon (interest) income payment under bonds and/or repayment of the principal debt (amortization payment), regularization of relations connected with lessening (non-lessening) of the REPO sum is executed in the order set out in the agreement, concluded between Clearing Members, which are parties to the REPO trade.
- 21.1.4. Unless otherwise stated by the decision of the Clearing House, the REPO sum in REPO Trades in bonds, executed within the Trading Modes defined by the decision of the Exchange, is lessened for the value of accrued coupon (interest) income and/or for the value of repayment of the principal debt (amortization payment) on the basis of the cross rate on the start date of the following coupon period under bonds, defined in the issue documents (on the date of receipt from the Payment agent of the information on paying out such income, in case of receipt by the Clearing House of the relevant information in the order defined in the agreement with the Payment agent).

- 21.2. If by the decision of the Clearing House or by the Clearing Rules the other is not stipulated, a Clearing Member which is a buyer under the first part of the REPO trade must transfer to a Clearing Member which is a seller under the first part of the REPO trade any dividends, interest and all others allocations under securities, in respect of which the REPO trade is executed, during 30 (thirty) calendar days, which follow the day of payment/transfer by the issuer of such dividends, interest or other allocation under securities, in respect of which the REPO trade is executed, if the list of entities, which have the right to receive it, is defined during the period after the fulfillment of obligations to transfer securities under the first part of the REPO trade and till the fulfillment of obligations to transfer securities under the second part of the REPO trade. Parties are entitled through additional agreement set other time frames and (or) the order for transfer of such dividends, interest or any other allocation under securities, in respect of which REPO trade is executed, transferred in non-monetary form.
- 21.3. In respect of REPO Trades, executed without the participation of the central counterparty in Trading Modes “REPO with the Bank of Russia: REPO Auction”, “REPO with the Bank of Russia: fixed rate”, “REPO with the Bank of Russia: fixed rate” and “REPO Auction with the Bank of Russia: floating rate”, a Clearing Member which is a buyer under the first part of the REPO trade must transfer to a Clearing Member which is a seller under the first part of the REPO trade Income from securities, in respect of which REPO trade is executed, within time frames and in the order defined in the SECTION VI. Article 50 of the Clearing Rules on the Securities Market, Deposit Market and Credit Market, if the list of entities, which have the right to receive dividends, interest and any other allocation, is determined during the period after the fulfillment of obligations to transfer securities under the first part of the REPO trade and till the fulfillment of obligations to transfer securities under the second part of the REPO trade.
- 21.4. In respect of REPO Trades, which are Trades T+, a Clearing Member which is a buyer under the first part of the REPO trade must transfer to a Clearing Member which is a seller under the first part of the REPO Income from securities, in respect of which REPO trade is executed, within time frames and in the order defined in the Article 48 of the Clearing Rules on the Securities Market, Deposit Market and Credit Market, if the list of entities, which have the right to receive dividends, interest and any other allocation, is determined during the period after the fulfillment of obligations to transfer securities under the first part of the REPO trade and till the fulfillment of obligations to transfer securities under the second part of the REPO trade.
- 21.5. For REPO Trades, executed without the participation of the central counterparty, the following terms are in effect:

- 21.5.1. In case if a Clearing Member – the seller under the first part of the REPO trade pays to a Clearing Member – the buyer under the first part of the REPO compensation payments in monetary form, the REPO sum is lessened for the value of such compensation payments on the date when it is posted. In case if during the REPO period there is no compensation payments in monetary form under REPO trade (or in case of the refusal to receive compensation payments in accordance with the paragraph 31.7 of the Clearing Rules on the Securities Market, Deposit Market and Credit Market, the REPO sum remains unchanged (except for cases of coupon (interest) income payments and repayment of the principal debt part (amortization payment) in respect of bonds).
- 21.5.2. In case if a Clearing Member – the buyer under the first part of the REPO trade pays to a Clearing Member – the seller under the first part of the REPO trade compensation payments in the form of securities, current number of securities under the REPO trade (obligations under the second part of the REPO trade for the buyer towards the seller under the first part of the REPO trade) is lessened for the number of securities, which constitute the value of such compensation payments (on its posting date). If it is not required to post compensation payment in the form of securities, then current number of securities under the REPO trade remains unchanged.
- 21.5.3. In case of non-posting of compensation payment under REPO Trade with open date by Clearing Member which has an obligation, the Date for the fulfillment of obligation under second part of such REPO Trade with open date will be the Settlement Day following the date on which the obligation to post the compensation payment arose.
- 21.5.4. Unless otherwise stated by the decision of the Clearing House, each Settlement Day, starting from the actual date for the fulfillment of obligations under the first part of the REPO trade (not including this date) till the actual date for the fulfillment of obligations under the second part of the REPO trade or till the Date for the termination of the fulfillment of the REPO trade (including this date) in the Clearing System the income under the REPO trade and the buyback cost are calculated according to the following formulas:

$$I_j = I_i + S_j * \frac{R_j}{100} * \left(\frac{T'_{365}}{365} + \frac{T'_{366}}{366} \right)$$

I_j is the income under the REPO trade on the day j;

I_i is the income under the REPO trade on the day i;

S_j is the REPO sum on the day j;

R_j is the REPO rate on the day j;

T'_{365} is the actual number of calendar days between the day i and the current day (day j), in the calendar year consisting of 365 (three hundred sixty-five) days;

T'_{366} is the actual number of calendar days between the day i and the current day (day j), in the calendar year consisting of 366 (three hundred sixty-six) days.

$$S_{II}^j = S_j + I_j,$$

S_{II}^j is the cost of buyback executed on the day j;

S_j is the REPO sum by the end of current day (day j);

day i is the Date for the fulfillment of obligations under the first part of the REPO trade or the date of the last change of the REPO sum and/or of the REPO rate before the current Settlement Day (day j);

For intraday REPO Trades the period between the trade execution date and the Settlement Date is considered to be equal to 1 (one) with the aim to calculate the price of the buyback.

For REPO Trade with open date the Date for the fulfillment of obligations under the second part of REPO Trade with open date will be the Settlement Day following the date of submission of instruction for fulfilment of the second part of REPO Trade with open date, or the date of registration by the Clearing House of Execution Instructions submitted by Clearing Members which are parties to the REPO Trade with open date. If within the period of time, based on the maximum possible Settlement Date of the second part of the REPO Trade with an open date specified in the order for execution a REPO Trade with an open date, instruction for fulfilment of the second part of REPO Trade or Execution Instruction was not sent, Date for the fulfillment of obligations under REPO Trade with open date is considered to be the date corresponding to the maximum possible Settlement Date of the second part of the REPO Trade with an open date specified in the order for execution a REPO Trade with open date or the last Settlement Day within the time period, based on the maximum possible Settlement Date of the second part of the REPO Trade with an open date specified in the order for execution a REPO Trade with an open date from the date of execution of a REPO Trade with open date, if the date corresponding to the maximum possible Settlement Date of the second part of the Repo Trade with an open date specified in the order for execution a REPO Trade with open date is not a Settlement Day.

In case there is information about upcoming corporate events within a period of time, based on the maximum possible Settlement Date of the second part of the REPO Trade with an open date specified in the order for execution a REPO Trade with open date that prevent the fulfilment of the second part of REPO Trade with an open date, Date for the fulfillment of obligations under the second part of REPO Trade with open date is the last Settlement Day before the specified corporate event, unless otherwise established by the decision of the Clearing House, which may be accepted upon the occurrence of these circumstances in accordance with the common part of the Clearing Rules.

For REPO Trades, executed with the Trading Mode “REPO with the Bank of Russia: REPO Auction”, “REPO with the Bank of Russia: fixed rate” “REPO with the Bank of Russia: floating rate (additional mechanism)” and “REPO Auction with the Bank of Russia: floating rate”, from the Date for the fulfillment of obligations under the second part of this REPO trade till the actual date for the fulfillment of obligations under the second part of this REPO trade or till the Date for termination of fulfillment of this REPO Trade, the income under the REPO trade is not calculated.

Information on the indicative rate under REPO Trade with the floating repo rate, and on the value of deviation from the indicative rate is provided to the Clearing Members as a part of the Extract from the list of trades, accepted for clearing, forwarded by the Clearing House.

- 21.5.5. The size of the accrued interest under the REPO trade on the current day j (is disclosed informationally in the Clearing System):

$$A_{II}^j = N_j * A_{ij} * e_j / r_j + A_j, \text{ where}$$

N_j is the number of securities under the REPO trade of the current day (day j);

A_{ij} is the size of the accrued interest on the day j (under the condition that it is calculated for this particular security);

e_j is the official exchange rate of the foreign currency, in which the nominal value of the security is expressed, towards the Russian ruble, set by the Bank of Russia on the day j . For securities, the nominal value of which is expressed in Russian rubles, e_j is considered to be equal to 1;

r_j is the official exchange rate of the foreign currency, in which the REPO trade in securities is executed, towards the Russian ruble, set by the Bank of Russia on the day j . For REPO Trades in securities, executed with settlements in Russian rubles, r_j is considered to be equal to 1;

A_j is the amount of the accrued interest, calculated on the current day, under compensation payments paid by the securities (under the condition that it is calculated for this particular security);

$$A_j = \sum_{i=0}^j (M_{oi} * A_{ii}) * e_i / r_i, \text{ where}$$

M_{oi} is the compensation payment in the form of securities on the day i ;

A_{ii} is the size of the accrued interest on the day i (under the condition that it is calculated for this particular security);

e_i is the official exchange rate of the foreign currency, in which the nominal value of the security is expressed, towards the Russian ruble, set by the Bank of Russia on the day i . For securities, nominal value of which is expressed in Russian rubles, e_j is considered to be equal to 1;

r_i is the official exchange rate of the foreign currency, in which the REPO Trade in securities is executed, towards the Russian ruble, set by the Bank of Russia on the day i . For the REPO trades in securities executed with the settlements in Russian rubles r_j is considered to be equal to 1.

- 21.6. For credit agreements the following terms are in effect:

- 21.6.1. Unless otherwise stated by the decision of the Clearing House, on each Settlement Day, starting from the actual date of the fulfillment of obligations to grant credit under the credit agreement (not including this date) till the actual date for the fulfillment of obligations to repay credit under the credit agreement, in the Clearing System the income in per cent under the credit agreement is calculated (hereinafter referred to as the income under the credit agreement) and the size of the obligation to repay credit under the credit agreement (taking into account accrued interest) according to the following formulas:

I_j is the income under the credit agreement on day j;

S is the credit amount;

R_j is the Rate on credit agreement on day j;

T'_{365} is the actual number of calendar days between the day i and the current day (day j), in the calendar year consisting of 365 (three hundred sixty-five) days;

T'_{366} is the actual number of calendar days between the day i and the current day (day j), in the calendar year consisting of 366 (three hundred sixty-six) days;

$$S''^j = S + I_j, \text{ where}$$

S''^j is the size of obligation to repay credit under the credit agreement on the day j;

S is the credit amount.

Information on the indicative rate under the credit agreement with the floating rate, and on the value of deviation from the indicative rate is provided to the Clearing Members as a part of the Extract from the list of trades, accepted for clearing, forwarded by the Clearing House.

21.7. Calculation of obligations to post compensation payments under REPO Trades, executed without the participation of the central counterparty in the Trading Modes, determined by the decision of the Exchange, is executed in the following order:

21.7.1. Unless otherwise stated by the decision of the Clearing House, each day, when the trading is held, under the condition of holding trading under the security, in which such REPO trade is executed, starting from the Date for the fulfillment of obligations under the first part of the REPO trade, terms of which are set by the maximum and/or minimum limits of the discount till the Date for the fulfillment of obligations under the second part of this REPO trade or till the Date for the termination of fulfillment of this particular REPO trade, after the calculation in the Clearing System of the settlement price, the following current value of the discount is calculated.

Dt is the current value of the discount;

S_j is the REPO sum by the start of the current day (day j);

I_j is income under the REPO trade on the day j;

$$C_j = N_j * (P_j + At_j) * e_j / r_j, \text{ where}$$

C_j is the Market price of securities under the REPO trade of the current day (day j);

N_j is the number of securities under the REPO trade of the current day (day j);

P_j is the settlement price under one security, calculated by the start of the current trading day, calculation methodology of which is set by the Clearing House, except for general collateral certificates, under which the settlement price in respect of REPO Trades is equal to the nominal value;

At_j is the accrued interest under one security on the current day (day j) (under the condition of its calculation for this particular security);

e_j is the official exchange rate of the foreign currency, in which the nominal value of the security is expressed, towards the Russian ruble, set by the Bank of Russia on the day j. For the securities, nominal value of which is expressed in Russian rubles, e_j is considered to be equal to 1;

r_j is the official exchange rate of the foreign currency, in which REPO Trade in securities is executed, towards the Russian ruble, set by the Bank of Russia on the day j. For REPO Trades in securities, executed with settlements in Russian rubles, r_j is considered to be equal to 1.

In case if the settlement price is not set then the calculation of the current value of the discount is not executed.

- 21.7.2. Unless otherwise stated by the decision of the Clearing House, in Trading Modes “REPO with the Bank of Russia: REPO Auction”, “REPO with the Bank of Russia: fixed rate”, “REPO with the Bank of Russia: floating rate (additional mechanism)” and “REPO Auction with the Bank of Russia: floating rate” on each day, when the trading is held, under the condition of holding trading under the security, in which such REPO trade is executed, starting from the Date for the fulfillment of obligations under the first part of the REPO till the Date for the fulfillment of obligations under the second part of this REPO trade or till the Date for the termination of fulfillment of this particular REPO trade, after the calculation in the Clearing System of the settlement price additionally to the values, calculated according to the paragraph 21.7.1 of the Clearing Rules on the Securities Market, Deposit Market and Credit Market, current margin deficiency is calculated.

$$Ds = (S_j + I_j) - \left(1 - \frac{Dn}{100\%}\right) * N_j * (P_j + At_j) * e_j / r_j, \text{ where}$$

Ds is the current margin deficiency;

S_j is the REPO sum by the start of the current day (day j);

I_j is the income under the REPO trade on the day j;

N_j is the number of securities under the REPO trade on the current day (day j);

P_j is the settlement price under one security, calculated by the start of the current day, calculation methodology of which is set by the Clearing House, except for general collateral certificates, under which the settlement price for REPO Trades is equal to the nominal value;

A_{t_j} is the accrued interest under one security on the current day (day j) (under the condition of its calculation for this particular security);

e_j is the official exchange rate of the foreign currency, in which the nominal value of the security is expressed, towards the Russian ruble, set by the Bank of Russia on the day j . For the securities, nominal value of which is expressed in Russian rubles, e_j is considered to be equal to 1;

r_j is the official exchange rate of the foreign currency, in which REPO Trade in securities is executed, towards the Russian ruble, set by the Bank of Russia on the day j . For REPO Trades in securities, executed with settlements in Russian rubles, r_j is considered to be equal to 1.

In case if the settlement price under the security is not set then the calculation of the current margin deficiency is not executed.

21.7.3. When exceeding by the current discount value of the maximum discount limit, a Clearing Member – the buyer under the first part of the REPO trade obtains an obligation to post compensation payment in the form of securities on the following Settlement Day (by partial prior delivery of securities under the second part of the REPO trade). If current discount value becomes less than the minimum discount limit, a Clearing Member – the seller under the first part of the REPO trade obtains an obligation to post compensation payment in monetary form on the following Settlement Day (by partial prior payment under the second part of the REPO trade). In addition to the abovementioned, in the Trading Modes “REPO with the Bank of Russia: REPO Auction”, “REPO with the Bank of Russia: fixed rate” and “REPO Auction with the Bank of Russia: floating rate” the Bank of Russia determines the size of the of the permissible reevaluation level in the currency of settlements under the REPO trade. In case if the value of the current margin deficiency is less than the negative value of the permissible reevaluation level, a Clearing Member – the buyer under the first part of the REPO trade obtains an obligation to post compensation payment in form of securities on the following Settlement Day (by partial prior delivery of securities under the second part of the REPO trade). When the current value of the margin deficiency exceeds the permissible reevaluation level, a Clearing Member – the seller under the first part of the REPO trade on the following Settlement Day obtains the obligation to post compensation payment in the monetary form (by partial prior payment under the second part of the REPO trade). In case of concurrent emergence of more than one obligation to post compensation payment under one REPO Trade, only one compensation payment is levied.

21.7.4. Unless otherwise stated by the decision of the Clearing House, the size of the compensation payment in the monetary form under the REPO trade to be paid on the current day (day j), $Md(j)$ is calculated according to the formula:

S_j is the REPO sum by the start of the current day (day j);

I_j is the income under the REPO trade on the day j;

C_j is the Market value of securities under the REPO trade on the current day (day j);

Dn is the initial discount value.

- 21.7.5. Unless otherwise stated by the decision of the Clearing House, the size of the compensation payment in securities under the REPO trade to be posted on the current day j, $Mo(j)$ is calculated according to the formula:

N_j is the number of securities under the REPO trade by the start of the current day (day j);

S_j is the REPO sum by the start of the current day (day j);

I_j is the income under the REPO trade on the day j;

Dn is the initial discount value;

At_j is the accrued interest in respect of the security on the current day (day j) (under the condition that it is calculated for this particular security);

P_j is the settlement price in respect of one security, calculated by the start of the current trading day, calculation methodology of which is set by the Clearing House, except for the general collateral certificates, under which the settlement price in respect of REPO Trades is equal to the nominal value;

$\text{int}\{X\}$ is the function of allocating the integer part of the value X;

e_j is the official exchange rate of the foreign currency, in which the nominal value of the security is expressed, towards the Russian ruble, set by the Bank of Russia on the day j. For the securities, nominal value of which is expressed in Russian rubles, e_j is considered to be equal to 1;

r_j is the official exchange rate of the foreign currency, in which REPO Trade in securities is executed, towards the Russian ruble, set by the Bank of Russia on the day j. For REPO Trades in securities, executed with settlements in Russian rubles, r_j is considered to be equal to 1.

- 21.7.6. Procedure for submission of instructions to post compensation payments is defined in the Article 31 of the Clearing Rules on the Securities Market, Deposit Market and Credit Market, procedure for the fulfillment of obligations to post compensation payments is given in the sub-section SUB-SECTION V-III of the Clearing Rules on the Securities Market, Deposit Market and Credit Market.

- 21.8. In case if on the Date of posting compensation payment a Clearing Member refused to receive compensation payment in accordance with the paragraph 31.7 of the Clearing Rules on the Securities Market, Deposit Market and Credit Market, then a Clearing Member – the counterparty to the trade becomes free from compensation payment posting. In case if on the Date of posting compensation payment the compensation payment has not been posted and a Clearing Member did not refuse to receive the compensation payment in accordance with the paragraph 31.7 of the Clearing Rules on the Securities Market, Deposit Market and Credit Market then the obligation to post the compensation payment is considered to be non-fulfilled and the period for its fulfillment is not to be prolonged. In this case the Date for the fulfillment of obligations under the second part of the relevant REPO trade is the first Settlement Day, following the Date of posting compensation payment, on which the obligation to post compensation payment has not been fulfilled. Obligations under the second part of the relevant REPO trade shall be fulfilled by both parties ahead of the schedule (till the Date for the fulfillment of obligations under the second part of the REPO trade, determined when concluding it), in particular, on the first Settlement Day, following the Date of posting compensation payment, on which the obligation to post compensation payment has not been fulfilled (on the basis of calculated in the Clearing System REPO trade parameters on the relevant date).

- 21.9. The decision of the Clearing House may stipulate that if the value of the calculated by the Clearing House compensation payment in the form of securities under the REPO trade to be posted on the current Settlement Day is equal to the number of securities under such REPO trade, then such compensation payment is not to be posted.
- 21.10. The decision of the Clearing House may stipulate that if the current value of the REPO sum under the REPO trade in bonds is less than the income payment on bonds executed on this current day (coupon income and amortization payment), then the REPO sum is not lessened for the value of paid income. Such income shall be transferred by a Clearing Member – the buyer under the first part of the REPO trade to a Clearing Member – the seller under the first part of the REPO in the currency of paid by the securities emitter income within the period, determined in the paragraph 21.2 of the Clearing Rules on the Securities Market, Deposit Market and Credit Market.
- 21.11. Unless otherwise stated by the decision of the Clearing House, each Settlement Day starting from the actual date for the fulfillment of obligations under the first part of the REPO trade, which is the Trade T+ (not including this date), till the actual date for the fulfillment of obligations under the second part of this REPO trade, or till the Date for the termination of fulfillment of this REPO trade (including this date) the income under the REPO trade and the buyback cost are calculated in the Clearing System according to the following formulas:

I_j is the income under the REPO trade on the day j;

I_i is the income under the REPO trade on the day i;

S is the REPO sum on the Settlement Day of the Settlement Date of obligations under the first part of the REPO trade;

R_j is the REPO rate on day j ;

T'_{365} is the actual number of calendar days between the day i and current day (day j), in a calendar year, which consists of 365 (three hundred sixty-five) days;

T'_{366} is the actual number of calendar days between the day i and current day (day j), in a calendar year, which consists of 366 (three hundred sixty-six) days;

$$S_{II}^j = S_j + I_j$$

where S_{II}^j is the sum of the buyback on the day j ;

S_j is the REPO sum at the end of the current day j ;

day i is the Date of the last change before the current Settlement day j of the following conditions for a REPO trade: the REPO sum and/or REPO Rate.

For REPO Trades, Date for the fulfillment of obligations, arising from the first part of the REPO trade, which coincides with the Date for the fulfillment of obligations, arising from the second part of the REPO trade, actual number of calendar days between the Date for the fulfillment of obligations under the first part of the REPO trade and the Date for the fulfillment of obligations under the second part of the REPO trade is considered to be equal to 1 (unity) with the aim to calculate income under the REPO trade and buyback price.

Information on the indicative rate under REPO Trade with the floating REPO rate, and on the value of deviation from the indicative rate is provided to the Clearing Members as a part of the Extract from the list of trades, accepted for clearing, forwarded by the Clearing House.

21.11.1. Size of the accrued interest under the REPO trade on the current day j (is disclosed informationally in the Clearing System):

$$A_{II}^j = N_j * At_j * e_j, \text{ where}$$

At_j is the accrued interest in respect of one security on the current day (day j) (under the condition that it is calculated by the Exchange for this security);

N_j is the number of securities in the trade, e_j is the official exchange rate of foreign currency, in which the nominal value of the security towards the Russian ruble is denominated, set by the Bank of Russia on the day j . For securities, the nominal value of which is denominated in Russian rubles, e_j is considered to be equal to 1.

Article 22. Specifics of calculation of obligations under deposits agreements

22.1. Unless otherwise stated by the decision of the Clearing House, each Settlement Day starting from the date of conclusion of deposit agreement (not including this date) till the date of deposit repay (including this date), in the Clearing System is calculated:

I_j - income on the deposit on day j;

S - size of the obligation of the Clearing House to repay the deposit amount on day j;

R_j - interest rate on day j;

S_{II}^j - sum of the deposit repay on day j:

$$S_{II}^j = S + I_j,$$

T'_{365} - actual number of calendar days between the day i and current day (day j), in a calendar year, which consists of 365 (three hundred sixty-five) days;

T'_{366} - actual number of calendar days between the day i and current day (day j), in a calendar year, which consists of 366 (three hundred sixty-six) days;

day i - the Settlement Date of obligations to post deposit under the concluded deposit agreement, or the date of the last change before the current day j of the conditions under the deposit agreement: interest rate on the deposit.

Information on the indicative rate under deposit agreement with the floating rate, and on the value of deviation from the indicative rate is provided to the Clearing Members as a part of the Extract from the list of trades, accepted for clearing, forwarded by the Clearing House.

22.2. In case of execution of the Application for the temporary return of the part of the deposit, the income on the deposit is recalculated by the Clearing House, taking into account the change of the interest rate in accordance with the paragraph 36.15 of the Clearing Rules on the Securities Market, Deposit Market and Credit Market.

22.3. In case of levying of execution upon cash funds of the Clearing Member on the Deposit Market, the Clearing House on the day, when the Clearing House received copy of the document, which is the ground for the abovementioned levy (hereinafter referred to as foreclosure document), notifies the Clearing Member on the necessity to post cash funds in the amount, required for the execution of the levy. The abovementioned notification is forwarded to the Clearing Member via the EDI.

- 22.4. On the Settlement Day (if the following Settlement Day is the following calendar day), following the notification day, or on the notification day (if the following Settlement Day is not the following calendar day) at the time, defined in the Time Specification, which is supplement to the Common Part of the Clearing Rules, as the time for the first fulfillment of Total Net Obligations of the Clearing Member in cash in the relevant currency during the Settlement Day, the Clearing House executes the foreclosure document.
- 22.4.1. For the execution of the foreclosure document the Clearing House uses Collateral of the Clearing Member, recorded under proprietary Settlement Accounts of the Clearing Member in the amount, for which the conditions of Collateral return, stipulated by the Common Part of the Clearing Rules, are met (hereinafter referred to as Free collateral).
- 22.4.2. In case if there is no sufficient amount of Free collateral for the execution of the foreclosure document, obligation(s) to return the deposit amount, upon which the deposit agreement(s) has (have) been concluded under the concluded with such Clearing Member deposit agreement(s), terminated though the emergence of the obligation of the Clearing House to return to the Clearing Member Collateral in the relevant currency. The abovementioned obligation(s) to return the deposit amount is terminated in full or partially, equal to the difference between the forfeiture amount, expenses for the performance of executive actions, execution fee and the Free collateral amount. Meanwhile the amount of Collateral of the Clearing Member in the relevant currency, recorded under the Settlement Account of the Clearing Member, is enlarged for the amount of the terminated obligation to return the deposit amount. After performance of actions, defined in this paragraph, the Clearing House executes the foreclosure document.
- 22.4.3. In case of termination of obligation(s) to return the deposit amount in accordance with the sub-paragraph 22.4.2 of the Clearing Rules on the Securities Market, Deposit Market and Credit Market, the Clearing House recalculates the size of earlier calculated income on the deposit: income on the deposit for the terminated part of the deposit from the date of the deposit agreement conclusion (not including this date) till the day, defined in the paragraph 22.4 of the Clearing Rules on the Securities Market, Deposit Market and Credit Market, is calculated in accordance with the interest rate, equal to the 0,01 percent per annum, income on the deposit for not terminated part of the deposit amount is calculated in accordance with the deposit agreement interest rate.
- 22.4.4. Starting from the day following the day, defined in the paragraph 22.4 of the Clearing Rules on the Securities Market, Deposit Market and Credit Market, when calculating the income on the deposit, deposit amount is considered to be equal to the value, equal to the deposit amount, lessened for the size of the terminated obligation to return deposits.
- 22.5. The Clearing House is entitled to change the size of the obligation(s) to return the deposit amount, upon which the deposit agreement(s) has been concluded under the concluded with such Clearing Member deposit agreement(s), in full or in part, required for the execution of the foreclosure document, expenses for the performance of executive actions and of the execution fee, if there is Free collateral inclusively.

- 22.5.1. In case if the size of the obligation(s) to return the deposit amount is changed then in accordance with the paragraph 22.5 of the Clearing Rules on the Securities Market, Deposit Market and Credit Market:
- in case if the sum, required for the execution of the foreclosure document, expenses for the performance of executive actions and the execution fee, is less than the deposit amount at the moment of time, defined in the Time Specification, which is the Supplement to the Common Part of the Clearing Rules, as the time for the first fulfillment of Total Net Obligations of the Clearing Member in cash in the relevant currency during the Settlement Day, size of the obligation(s) to return the deposit amount is lessened together with the emergence of the obligation of the Clearing House to return to the Clearing Member Collateral in the relevant currency. The abovementioned size of the obligation(s) to return the deposit amount is lessened for the amount, required for the execution of the foreclosure document, expenses for the performance of executive actions and the execution fee. Meanwhile the amount of the Collateral of the Clearing Member in the relevant currency, recorded under the Settlement Account of the Clearing Member, is enlarged for the amount, upon which the obligation to return the deposit amount has been changed;
 - in case if the sum, required for the execution of the foreclosure document, expenses for the performance of executive actions and the execution fee, is equal to or exceeds the deposit amount, at the time, defined in the Time Specification, which is the Supplement to the Common Part of the Clearing Rules, as the time for the first fulfillment of Total Net Obligations of the Clearing Member in cash in the relevant currency during the Settlement Day, the obligation(s) to return deposit amount is (are) terminated through the emergence of the obligation of the Clearing House to return to the Clearing Member Collateral in the relevant currency. The abovementioned obligation(s) to return the deposit amount is terminated in full. Meanwhile the amount of Collateral of the Clearing Member in the relevant currency, recorded under the Settlement Account of the Clearing Member, is enlarged for the size of the terminated obligation to return the deposit amount;
 - the Clearing House executes the foreclosure document.
- 22.5.2. If the Clearing Member has Free collateral then it means the consent of the Clearing Member upon the replenishment of the deposit(s), the size of the obligation to return the amount of which has been lessened.
- 22.5.3. If the Clearing Member has Free collateral, the Clearing House replenishes deposit(s) in the amount equal to the minimum value out of the following two: (1) Free collateral amount; (2) amount, on which the obligation(s) to return the deposit amount has been lessened in accordance with the paragraph 22.5 of the Clearing Rules on the Securities Market, Deposit Market and Credit Market.
- 22.5.4. In case if the size of the obligation(s) to return the deposit amount has been lessened in accordance with the paragraph 22.5 of the Clearing Rules on the Securities Market, Deposit Market and Credit Market, the Clearing House re-calculates the size of income on the deposit, calculated earlier: income on the part of the deposit, which is equal to the difference between the amount, for which the obligation to return the deposit amount has been lessened, and the amount, on which the deposit(s) has been replenished from the date of the deposit agreement conclusion (not including this date) till the day, defined in the paragraph 22.4 of the Clearing Rules on the Securities Market, Deposit Market and Credit Market (including this date), is calculated in accordance with the interest rate, equal to the 0,01 percent per annum, the income on the deposit in respect of not terminated deposit amount and replenished part of the deposit is calculated in accordance with the interest rate of the deposit agreement.

- 22.5.5. In case of termination of the obligation(s) to return the deposit amount in full in accordance with the paragraph 22.5 of the Clearing Rules on the Securities Market, Deposit Market and Credit Market, the Clearing House re-calculates the size of the income on the deposit, calculated earlier, from the date of the deposit agreement conclusion (not including this date) till the day, defined in the paragraph 22.4 of the Clearing Rules on the Securities Market, Deposit Market and Credit Market, in accordance with the interest rate, equal to the 0,01 percent per annum.
- 22.5.6. Starting from the day, defined in the paragraph 22.4 of the Clearing Rules on the Securities Market, Deposit Market and Credit Market, when calculating the income on the deposit, the deposit amount is considered to be equal to the value, which is equal to the deposit amount, lessened for the difference between the amount, for which the obligation to return the deposit amount has been lessened, and the amount, for which the deposit has been replenished.
- 22.6. The deposit agreement(s), obligation under which is terminated in full or in the part, required for the execution of the foreclosure document, is chosen by the Clearing House in the descending order of the deposit agreement conclusion date and time.
- 22.7. When levying of execution upon cash funds of the Clearing Member in foreign currency, placed in the deposit, the Clearing House sells foreign currency according to the exchange rate not lower than the Lower Bound of the Price Range.
- 22.8. In case if cash funds of the Clearing Member, placed in the deposits, are seized, terms of the deposit agreement are not changed. On the date of the deposit return, the Clearing House imposes the restriction in respect of the withdrawal and any other use of cash funds, which constitutes Collateral of the Clearing Member, and which is received by the Clearing Member due to the fulfillment by the Clearing House of the obligations to return to the Clearing Member deposits in the amount, indicated in the document, which is the ground for the seizure.
- 22.9. In case if party to the depository agreement is the Clearing Member – state corporation / Clearing Member – state company / Clearing Member – publicly owned company, and the Clearing House stopped meeting requirements, stipulated by the Rules for investing temporarily available funds of the state corporation, state company, publicly owned company, approved by Regulation (Regulations) of the Government of the Russian Federation, such Clearing Member till the Date for the fulfillment of obligation to return the deposit is entitled to terminate deposit agreement(s) early by forwarding to the Clearing House application in free form with the indication of the ground for early termination of the deposit agreement(s).

- 22.9.1. Obligation(s) to return the deposit amount, on which the deposit agreement(s) has been concluded, under executed with such Clearing Member deposit agreement(s), is (are) terminated by arising of the Obligation of the Clearing House to return Collateral in the relevant currency to the Clearing Member not later than 10 (tenth) Settlement Day, following the day of receipt of the application on early termination of the deposit agreement from the Clearing Member – state corporation / Clearing Member – state company / Clearing Member – publicly owned company.
- 22.10. In case of termination of the obligation(s) to return the deposit amount according to the sub-paragraph 22.9.1 of the Clearing Rules on the Securities Market, Deposit Market and Credit Market, the Clearing House does not re-calculate size of the income on deposit calculated earlier: income on deposit is calculated according to the interest rate of the deposit agreement for the period from the deposit agreement conclusion date (not including this date) to the date of termination of obligation(s) to return the deposit amount according to the sub-paragraph 22.9.1 of the Clearing Rules on the Securities Market, Deposit Market and Credit Market (including this date).

Article 35. Procedure for inclusion into the clearing pool and fulfillment of obligations under deposit agreements

- 35.1. Before the time, defined in the Time Specifications as the time for the first fulfillment of Total Net Obligations / Total Net Claims in cash funds in the relevant currency during the Settlement Day, the Clearing House includes obligations of the Clearing House to return to Clearing Members deposits with the arrived Settlement Date into the Clearing Pool for settlement of obligations to return deposits.
- 35.2. Obligations to return deposits with the arrived Settlement Date are fulfilled before the first fulfillment (termination) of Total Net Obligation / Total Net Claim in cash funds in the relevant currency during the Settlement Day, recorded under the Settlement Account of the Clearing Member. Check of the sufficiency of cash funds for the conclusion of the deposit agreement and the fulfillment of obligations to post deposits is executed after the first fulfillment (termination) of Total Net Obligations / Total Net Claims in cash in the relevant currency during the Settlement Day, recorded under the Settlement Account of the Clearing Member.
- 35.3. Conclusion of deposit agreements is executed using Collateral, recorded under the Settlement Account of the Clearing Member after the first fulfillment (termination) of Total Net Obligations / Total Net Claims in cash in the relevant currency, and / or using Collateral, received by a Clearing Member as the result of the execution by the Clearing House of obligations to return to a Clearing Member deposits with the arrived Settlement Date, in ascending order of the target date of deposit agreement conclusion and for orders to conclude deposit agreements with the similar target date of deposit agreement conclusion – in ascending order of date and time of the order to conclude the deposit agreement inclusion into the list of offers.

- 35.4. Obligation of the Clearing House to return to a Clearing Member the deposit with the arrived Settlement Date includes the obligation to return the deposit amount and the interest amount, calculated in accordance with the terms of the concluded deposit agreement and/or in accordance with the Article 41 of the Clearing Rules on the Securities Market, Deposit Market and Credit Market (applied if the Clearing Member changes the deposit amount). Settlement Date for obligations of the Clearing House to return to a Clearing Member the deposit is the deposit return date, determined in accordance with the deposit agreement terms and the Equity & Bond Market, Deposit Market and Credit Market Trading Rules.

Cash Flow Statement, submitted by a Clearing House to the Clearing Member, is the document approving the deposit return.

- 35.5. Obligation of the Clearing House to return to a Clearing Member the deposit in the relevant currency, recorded under the Settlement Account of a Clearing Member, is terminated by the emergence of the obligation of the Clearing House to return to a Clearing Member Collateral in the relevant currency, recorded under the same Settlement Account. With the regard to the abovementioned, the amount of Collateral of a Clearing Member in the relevant currency, recorded under the Settlement Account of a Clearing Member, is enlarged for the amount of obligation to return the deposit.

- 35.6. Check of the sufficiency of cash funds for the conclusion of the deposit agreement is executed on the target date for the conclusion of the deposit agreement in accordance with the settlement code, indicated in the order to conclude the deposit agreement, included into the list of offers, and on the Settlement Day, following the determined date, in case if on target date for the conclusion of the deposit agreement there is insufficient amount of cash funds to conclude the deposit agreement in the deposit amount, defined in the order to conclude the deposit agreement, included into the list of offers.

- 35.6.1. The amount of cash funds of a Clearing Member is sufficient for the deposit agreement conclusion, if the amount of Collateral in cash funds, recorded under the Settlement Account (taking into account execution by the Clearing House of obligations to return deposits to a Clearing Member of any categories except for the category “K”, Settlement Date for which has arrived, or taking into account obligations, fulfilled by the Clearing House, to return deposits to the Clearing Member of the category “K”, Settlement Date of which has arrived and taking into account fulfillment (termination) of Total Net Obligations / Total Net Claims in cash funds in the relevant currency) is more than or equal to the deposit amount, defined in the order to conclude the deposit agreement, included into the list of offers, submitted with the indication of a Trade Account, into the structure of which such Settlement Account is included, and is insufficient if it is less than the abovementioned deposit amount.

35.6.2. The deposit agreement is concluded at the expense of cash funds, recorded as Collateral under the Settlement Account, which is included into the structure of the Trade Account, indicated in the order to conclude the deposit agreement, included into the list of offers, in the maximum amount, not exceeding at the same time:

- 1) deposit amount, indicated in the order to conclude the deposit agreement, included into the list of offers, and
- 2) amount of Collateral in Russian rubles, rounded to the nearest smaller integer, recorded under the relevant Settlement Account, lessened for the amount of obligations to pay variable parts of fees under deposit agreements, calculated on the current day (when concluding deposit agreement in Russian rubles), amount of Collateral in the relevant foreign currency, calculated as quotient of the division of the product rounded to the nearest smaller integer of the Collateral in the relevant foreign currency, recorded under the relevant Settlement Account, and of the Central rate for the relevant foreign currency, valid for the moment of submission of the order to conclude deposit agreement (when concluding the deposit agreement in foreign currency).

The document, confirming the deposit posting, is the Cash flow statement, submitted by the Clearing House to a Clearing Member.

35.6.3. The deposit agreement for the amount, equal to the difference between the deposit amount, indicated in the order to conclude the deposit agreement, included into the list of offers, and the sum of deposit agreements, concluded on the basis of such order, can be concluded on the following Settlement Day (except for deposit agreements with the period of one day).

For the clearing service regarding transfer of the data of the collateral provision in the sum required for the conclusion of the deposit agreement, including cases when the identification data, including the code of client, specified in the order, were invalid at the time of check, the Clearing House levies upon a Clearing Member the fee, set by the Tariffs of the Clearing House. The abovementioned fee is calculated on the target date for the conclusion of the deposit agreement and is recorded under:

- main Settlement Account for the fees withdrawal, procedure for choosing which is defined in the Common Part of the Clearing Rules, in case if the Settlement Account, which is included into the structure of the Trade Account, defined in the order to conclude deposit agreement, included into the list of offers, is the Trust Settlement Account,
- Settlement Account, which is included into the structure of the Trade Account, indicated in the order to conclude the deposit agreement, included into the list of offers, in case if the Settlement Account, which is included into the structure of the Trade Account, defined in the order to conclude deposit agreement, included into the list of offers, is not Trust Settlement Account.

Obligations to pay the abovementioned fee are included into the Unified Clearing Pool and are fulfilled in the order, set out in the Common Part of the Clearing Rules.

35.7. A Clearing Member is entitled to provide the Clearing House with the Application for consolidating orders to conclude deposit agreements.

35.7.1. The Settlement Account of the Clearing Member shall be indicated in the Application for consolidating orders to conclude deposit agreements.

35.8. In case if the Clearing Member provided the Clearing House with the Application for consolidating orders to conclude deposit agreements with instruction to consolidate orders to conclude deposit agreements and if in the list of offers there are non-addressed orders to conclude deposit agreements, which have similar terms out of the following ones:

- Trade Account of the Clearing Member, into the structure of which the Settlement Account, indicated in the Application for consolidating orders to conclude deposit agreements, is included;
- deposit currency;
- security name and code, order to execute REPO Trade in which can be recognized as acceptable counter one;

the account of a Clearing Member – receiver of the sum of residual obligations under the REPO trade, defined in the notification on the settling procedure. In case if there is no information on the account of a Clearing Member- buyer in the notification on the settling procedure, obligation to pay the sum which constitutes residual obligations under the REPO trade is considered to be fulfilled from the moment of debiting cash funds in the amount of residual obligation from the account of the Clearing Member – payer in favor of the Clearing Member – receiver according to the details known to the Clearing Member – payer.

43.2.2.7. The Non-breaching Party is entitled at its discretion:

- Starting from the workday, following the Settlement Date for obligations under the second part of the REPO trade (or starting from the workday, which is the Settlement Date for obligations under the second part of the REPO Trade in case if the Clearing Member demanded execution of the Procedure for settling mutual obligations in accordance with the sub-paragraph 28.8.1 of the Clearing Rules on the Securities Market, Deposit Market and Credit Market) but within the period, which does not exceed 25 (twenty five) calendar days from the Settlement Date for obligations under the second part of the REPO trade – to sell in full securities, received under the first part of the REPO trade from the Breaching Party, or to buy in full securities, equivalent to securities transferred under the first part of the REPO trade to the Breaching Party, and execute calculation of the sum of residual obligations, or
- Refuse to sell/buy securities, received / transferred under the first part of the REPO trade from the Breaching Party and execute calculation of the sum of residual obligations.

43.2.2.8. With aim to calculate the residual obligations under the REPO trade the value of securities not transferred under the second part of the REPO trade is defined by the following method upon the choice of the Non-breaching Party:

- In case of disposal (acquisition) of securities – as actual value of disposed securities or as actual value of acquired securities, equivalent to the securities transferred under the first part of REPO Trade. When defining the actual value of disposal or acquisition of securities the costs incurred by the Non-breaching Party in connection with execution and (or) settlement of the relevant buy-sell trades are also taken into account.
- In case of refusal from disposal (acquisition) of securities the Non-breaching Party is entitled to calculate at its own discretion the value of residual obligations using for definition of securities value the estimated value, defined on the basis of the arithmetical average not less than 5 (five) quotations of Trading Members, received by the Non-breaching Party not earlier than 5 (five) workdays before the date of forwarding notification on settling procedure on the number of securities which corresponding to the number of securities not transferred under the second part of REPO Trade. Meanwhile the Non-breaching Party defines the Trading Members which quotations it uses for calculation of residual obligations at its own discretion. Also the Non-breaching Party is entitled to calculate residual obligations at its own discretion using as the estimated value of securities the price of the NSD Pricing center on the Settlement Date of obligations under second part of REPO Trade, or the estimated price of securities on the day following the Settlement Date of obligations under the second part of REPO Trade, or, if there is no such estimated price – on the day of next trading held during last 12 months till Settlement date of obligations under the second part of REPO Trade.

The Non-breaching Party is also entitled to apply to the Clearing House for the calculation of residual obligations under REPO Trades (excluding REPO Trades executed in the Trading modes “REPO with the Bank of Russia: REPO Auction”, “REPO with the Bank of Russia: fixed rate” “REPO with the Bank of Russia: floating rate (additional mechanism)” and “REPO Auction with the Bank of Russia: floating rate”). The Clearing House calculates residual obligations using as the estimated value of securities the price of the NSD Pricing center on the Settlement Date of obligations under second part of the relevant REPO Trade, and if there is no such estimated price – the estimated price of securities on the day following the Settlement Date of obligations under the second part of REPO Trade, or if there is no such estimated price – the day of next trading held during last 12 months till Settlement date of obligations under the second part of this REPO Trade. On the basis of results of residual obligations calculation the Clearing House provides a Non-breaching Party with the Report on the size of residual obligations.

- 43.3. Settling issues connected with the non-fulfillment of obligations under the second part of the REPO trades in case of early redemption of bonds, which are the subject of obligations under the REPO trade.
- 43.3.1. In case of early redemption of bonds, which are the subject of obligations under the REPO trade, and impossibility to fulfill obligations under the REPO trade in the Clearing System on the date of early redemption obligations under the second part of the REPO trade are terminated. On the date of early redemption Clearing Members – counterparties execute calculation of the amount of residual obligations through determining the difference between the cost of buyback under the REPO trade (taking into account paid / received compensation margin payments and payments made by the issuer during the REPO period till the date of early redemption) and the value of securities, calculated as the amount of cash funds, paid by the issuer for early redemption of bonds and other payments, made by the issuer under bonds on the date of early redemption. A Clearing Member is entitled to address the Clearing House for the calculation of residual obligations. The Clearing House is entitled to calculate residual obligations only if there is information on the size of payments, made by the issuer. On the basis of results of residual obligations calculation the Clearing House provides a Clearing Member with the Report on the size of residual obligations.
- 43.3.2. The sum of residual obligations is transferred by the relevant counterparty to the REPO trade within 30 (thirty) calendar days from the date of early redemption.
- 43.4. Settling issues, connected with non-fulfillment of obligations arising from trades, obligations under which are fulfilled by submitting the Execution Instruction.
- 43.4.1. In case of non-execution of trades, executed under the terms of postponed execution, in respect of which Equity & Bond Market, Deposit Market and Credit Market Trading Rules do not stipulate filling in the details of an order/trade “Fixed Refund”, a Clearing Member, which has not fulfilled its obligations, must pay to a Clearing Member – counterparty to the trade the forfeit in the amount of double Russian Secured Funding Average Rate RUSFAR, calculated for 1 (one) day (overnight), valid on the day of non-fulfillment of the defined claims, accrued for the sum of obligations under a trade for each day of execution delay, unless otherwise is stated by the bilateral agreement.

- 43.5. Settling issues connected with payments of income under securities and non-fulfillment of obligations under the second part of REPO Trades in case of emergence of force majeure circumstances.
- 43.5.1. In case of emergence of force majeure circumstances (emergency and unavoidable circumstances, emerging after the Settlement Date for obligations under trades arrives) which effect the possibility of a Clearing Member to fulfill claims, stipulated by the paragraphs 43.1-43.2 of the Clearing Rules on the Securities Market, Deposit Market and Credit Market and/or by the paragraphs 21.1-21.2 of the Clearing Rules on the Securities Market, Deposit Market and Credit Market, a Clearing Member must inform a Clearing Member – counterparty to a trade on their incurrance and termination on the date when such circumstances occur and terminate (on the next workday in case of their occurrence and termination on the non-working day) by forwarding notification the written form with attaching documents, confirming occurrence/termination of such obligations, issued by the competent state bodies.
- 43.5.2. Annulment/suspension of the license for performing professional activity on the securities market, revocation of the banking license, appointment of the interim administration or bankruptcy procedure introduction cannot be considered as force majeure circumstances.
- 43.5.3. The failure to comply with the requirement, stipulated by the sub-paragraph 43.5.1 of the Clearing Rules on the Securities Market, Deposit Market and Credit Market, deprives a Clearing Member which breach the requirement of his right to refer to force majeure circumstances.
- 43.5.4. After the moment when force majeure circumstances are terminated, Clearing Members must fulfill claims, stipulated by the paragraphs 43.1-43.2 of the Clearing Rules on the Securities Market, Deposit Market and Credit Market and/or by the paragraphs 21.1-21.2 of the Clearing Rules on the Securities Market, Deposit Market and Credit Market.
- 43.5.5. In case if force majeure circumstances are in effect in respect of one of Clearing Members and last for more than 10 (ten) workdays, another Clearing Member is entitled to refuse from the further execution of REPO Trade(s).
- 43.6. In Trading Modes “REPO with the Bank of Russia: REPO Auction”, “REPO with the Bank of Russia: Fixed rate” “REPO with the Bank of Russia: floating rate (additional mechanism)” and “REPO Auction with the Bank of Russia: floating rate” settling of stipulated by this article of the Clearing Rules on the Securities Market, Deposit Market and Credit Market, mutual claims arising from trades is executed in accordance with the General Agreement, concluded between the Bank of Russia and a Clearing Member. In case if in the General Agreement there is no information on the procedure for settling abovementioned claims, settling of such claims is executed in the order, set out in this article of the Clearing Rules on the Securities Market, Deposit Market and Credit Market.

Article 44. Procedure for the calculation of the size of Fixed Refund

- 44.1. If a Clearing Member does not fulfill obligations (to pay cash funds or to deliver securities) under a trade with the settlement code B0-B30 such Clearing Member must pay Fixed Refund to the Clearing Member – counterparty to a trade. With regard to the abovementioned the Fixed Refund is calculated as the product of the Fixed Refund rate, indicated in the addressed order, and the volume of this trade.
- 44.2. If a Clearing Member does not fulfill obligations (to pay cash funds or to deliver securities) under the first or the second part of the REPO trade, or obligation to repay credit under the credit agreement executed without the participation of the central counterparty, such Clearing Member must pay the Fixed Refund to a Clearing Member – counterparty to the REPO trade / credit agreement. With the regard to the abovementioned the Fixed Refund is calculated as the product of the Fixed Refund rate, indicated by counterparties in addressed orders, on the basis of which such REPO trade / credit agreement is executed, and the REPO sum on current trading day / credit amount.
- 44.3. The Fixed Refund under a trade executed without the participation of the central counterparty with settlements in foreign currency is levied in Russian rubles according to the rate of the Bank of Russia on the Date for the termination of the execution of the relevant trades.
- 44.4. A Clearing Member is entitled to refuse to receive the Fixed Refund under a trade executed without the participation of the central counterparty by forwarding to the Clearing House written notification till the date when the Fixed Refund is paid in accordance with the Clearing Rules on the Securities Market, Deposit Market and Credit Market.
- 44.5. In case if both Clearing Members – counterparties to a trade executed without the participation of the central counterparty have not fulfilled their obligations under such trade then they do not have mutual obligations to pay the Fixed Refund to each other under such trade.

SUB-SECTION V-V. PROCEDURE FOR THE FULFILLMENT OF OBLIGATIONS INCLUDED INTO THE CLEARING POOL

Article 45. Procedure for the fulfillment of obligations and claims of Clearing Members and of the Clearing House included into the clearing pool 45.1. The Clearing House calculates and records obligations and claims in cash funds under each Settlement Account of a Clearing Member (Clearing House) / Collateral Account T0 in accordance with the terms of executed by himself trades, obligations under which are included into the relevant clearing pool.
